

Metal structure:

Satin nickel

Chrome-plated

In 1996, we invited Miguel Milá to design the table version of the iconic TMM, replacing wood with metal to lighten the forms. In 2005, we restored the height of that reinterpretation, giving rise to the TMD Floor lamp. A slim and slender version that retains its essence: the ingenious system of a simple rubber ring to fix the white linen shade at the desired height, as well as the gesture of turning it on and off with a gentle tug on the cord. And its elegant white linen shade, which freely rotates around its axis, allows its warm light to gracefully adapt to its surroundings.
